Scholarship Application

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for taking the time to complete the Scholarship Application for the Lions Club of Millis.

It is recommended that you:

- Assemble the information requested
- Compose the answers on scrap paper
- Review and check your answers
- Write clearly and legibly

Use additional paper if desired; make notation on form, for example, "See attachment "A," "B,..." etc.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Parent(s) or guardian must be a resident of Millis.
- Applicant must possess a high school diploma or expect to receive one this year. (All high school seniors are eligible, regardless of where you attend high school)
- The application and attachments must be complete and submitted to the Guidance Office at Millis High School or mailed to us by the specified due date (see website).

The submission should include:

- The Lions scholarship application
- Typed essay on "How I Have Served Others" (separate paper)
- Your high school transcript for grades 9, 10, 11 & 12
- Your official SAT scores
- One letter of recommendation from a person (other than a relative) who has known you for several years

Eligibility: Acceptance at a school of two or more years of study leading to a certificate or degree; scholastic proficiency; financial need; evidence of service and leadership; and a well-written and grammatically correct essay.

Mail your application to Mr. Ed Perry, 183 Pleasant St., Millis, MA 02054.

It must be received by April 10, at 5pm.

We wish you all the best in your academic endeavors.
